

St Mary the Virgin, Rickmansworth
Serving the whole community

Calendar of Events - Summer 2022

We've many things planned for the coming weeks and months - with them all rounded up and listed here.

We hope that there will be something that appeals to you and people you know so that you can invite them along!

Where you see this image  this is an event where children are very much included in all that is planned - so feel free to bring them along to join in the fun.

We look forward to seeing you throughout the year - and, as well as reading this leaflet yourself, please feel free to share it with others.

For the latest information, it's always worth checking the Church website: stmarysrickmansworth.org.uk.
